Services

Community Room (Large Meeting Room)

The library has a Community Room for library sponsored or co-sponsored programs. When not in use for library activities, this meeting room is available to community organizations and groups meeting the policy guidelines. It can be reserved up to two months in advance. A person may request the Community Room by reading the policy and filling out a written application. Following receipt of the completed application, you will be notified if the request has been confirmed or denied.

Study Rooms

There are four study rooms of various sizes at the library, that can be checked out during your visit. If you would like to reserve one ahead of time, please call 334-2470. Rooms can be reserved up to two months in advance and are normally limited to two hours of usage.

Reference Service

The library staff is happy to provide reference services to you. Ask us in person, by phone 319-334-2470, or through email indylib@indytel.com. We will find the answers as quickly as possible and get back to you.

Other Services offered:

- Fax $1.00 per page for outgoing faxes and $.10 per page for incoming
- Scan free to scan and email
- Copy/Print Black and white is $.10 per side or $.20 per double-sided page. Color is $.50 per page.
- Clean/Repair a personal CD or DVD The library has a disk repair machine. Bring in your own disk and have it cleaned for $1.00 per disk.
- Proctor Free proctoring of exams is offered. You must arrange this ahead of time with the school and the library. Refer to the "Proctoring Services" page on our website for more information.
- ILL (Inter-Library Loan) If the library does not own an item you would like, you may request that we purchase it or borrow the item from another library. There will be a $2.00 fee to offset the shipping expenses.
- Drive-up Book Drop If you can't make it to the library when we are open or don't have time to come in, you are welcome to use the book drop located on the west side of the library. There are two slots, one for books and the other for DVDs and audiobooks.
- Activities available in the library While in the library, children's puzzles, a Chuggington Train Table, Duplo Legos, and game pieces for the game table are available for checkout. A 500-1,000-piece puzzle is also out your enjoyment.

See "The Latest News" on pages 3-4 to find out more ways to stay in tune with the library and program offerings.

Computers, Devices and Wi-Fi

Computers

- The patron ID is your library card number and the password is your phone number on file at the library. If this doesn't work, there could be various reasons, so ask a library staff member for help. To end your time on the computer, choose the Exit button on the tool bar near the bottom of your screen.
- Computers may be used for one hour. If the computers are not busy, an additional hour may be allowed by the system.
- You may reserve a computer for a certain day and time by calling us at 319-334-2470.
- Laptops are for use by those 12 years of age or older. Ask to check one out for use in the library at the check-out counter. You must leave your library card or photo ID until you return the computer.
- All cardholders, regardless of age, have access to library materials and services, including the Internet.

Wi-Fi Personal Device Usage:

- Persons who bring their own laptop, tablet, or device may use the free wireless network after agreeing to the online user agreement.
- Use of the wireless network must conform to the acceptable use as outlined with other computers. There is no time restriction when you are using your own notebook/laptop.

Early Literacy Computers

The library has three early literacy computers that any child may use...just ask at the desk and a staff member will log the computer in for you. Two are for children 2-8 and one for children 6-12, each has a touch-screen, and more than 50 educational programs for early learning!

Looking for computer/device training?

The library staff will also be happy to make an appointment so you can bring in your device for help with BRIDGES and other library services.

BRIDGES (Digital Books & Audiobooks) and Online Learning/Research Tools

BRIDGES offers downloadable ebooks and digital audiobooks to our patrons. See more information plus links to instructions on our website. Search for BRIDGES titles in Apollo, the library's catalog, or in the BRIDGES database.

Ancestry Library Edition is a research tool offering comprehensive, international genealogical information available online, with billions of indexed names in over 9,000 collections. Use of the database is available only in the library. Ask for help, request a class, or checkout the Learning Center in Ancestry when you need assistance.

Free online expert help for job seekers, veterans, and their families. Featuring resume templates & professional reviews, VA benefits eligibility assistance, college skills building, practice tests, & standardized test preparation.

Gale will give you magazine and newspaper resources at your fingertips as well as Chilton's Automotive Assistance, Books and Authors, and resources for different age levels. Click on the link from the library website under Research and Explore.

The Online Book Club is a great way to expand your reading horizons! Access it from the library's website and sign up for the genres, or categories, of your choice. Monday through Friday, you will receive an email with approximately five minutes of reading. A new book starts each Monday.

The library has Samsung Tablets that patrons can check out and take home for two weeks. The tablets are preloaded with over 400 popular titles for all ages and interests.

You are eligible to check out a Tablet if you are a minimum of 18 years old and you have been a member of the library for 90 days or longer. You will need to take a short training and sign a User Agreement form before checking one out.

Beanstack

Tips when you can't find what you are looking for:

- Reserve an item the library owns but is checked out online through your Apollo account or by contacting the library. You will be notified when the item is available for you.
- IPL cooperates with other Iowa libraries to enable borrowing between libraries. If we don't have an item that you would like, we may be able to borrow it or purchase it. A $2.00 fee to help cover shipping costs may apply.
- We are glad to help, so please ask us!

See “Using Apollo, the Online Catalog” on page 11 for information about accessing your account online as well as renewing, reserving, and setting up notifications.

Using Apollo, the Online Catalog

Apollo is the library's catalog and checkout software. Below is an introduction of Apollo and some of its features!

Get to the Catalog:

Click on the Catalog Search in the middle of the library's homepage to get to the catalog.

Log in:

Log into your account with your library card number and any telephone number listed on your library account. If this doesn't work, there could be various reasons, so ask a library staff member for help. Stop in or call 319-334-2470.

Once Logged in:

- Reserve, renew, and request items. If you are unable to renew your item, it is on reserve for another customer or you have reached the two renewal limit.
- Choose how to be notified of overdue materials, reserves, and items that will be due in three days.
- Sign up to be on an automatic reserve list for your favorite authors. In Reserve Express, choose from Grisham, Evanovich, Patterson, Macomber, etc., and be notified when it is your turn for their newest release! While in your account, go to the Reserves area and find "Have some favorite authors? Arrange to receive new books by selected authors automatically." Click on receive new books to get signed up for the service.

Catalog Features:

- Materials will show up in a box with a green or pink background. If it is green, that title is currently available. If it is pink, it is checked out.
- When searching the catalog, note that the BRIDGES items, the electronic downloads of ebooks and audiobooks, are listed in the catalog. Link directly to the title you want in the BRIDGES database! You can search both our print and digital book and audiobook holdings in one place.
- Go to "What's Hot" on the front page of the catalog to find audios, DVDs, or other items that have been newly added to the library collection and the most popular titles at the library right now.
- Try the Mobile Mode on your iPhone or smartphone. It's an easy way to access the catalog.
